Behavior is Communication
A workshop with Sally Burton-Hoyle, Professor, Eastern Michigan University, Department of Special Education, Autism Spectrum Disorders

Friday, May 11, 2018
Noon – 2:30 p.m.
River Raisin Rooms 1 & 4
1101 S. Raisinville Rd.
Monroe, MI 48161
Sign-in opens at 11:30 am.
Lunch and childcare provided.

Who should attend this workshop?
Families of children/young adults with disabilities and/or learning challenges, school staff, community members, and organizations

All behavior is communication. We know that children who exhibit unacceptable behavior do so for a specific reason. This workshop will help you determine what they are saying with their behavior and how to substitute a more acceptable way to communicate that message.
