- Save money by using the Express Scripts Pharmacy, our home delivery service.
- In most cases, if your doctor writes "Dispense as written" or "DAW," your cost will be higher.
- If you take a brand-name medication and a generic is available, you pay $40 plus the difference between the approved amount and the retail cost. Your doctor may request an exception in certain instances; call MESSA for details.
- If the approved amount is less than the copayment, you pay only the approved amount for the drug.
- Specialty medications may be handled separately. We reserve the right to limit the initial quantity of select specialty drugs. Your copay will be reduced by one-half for this reduced initial fill.
