Reconfirmation Meeting for October 20, 2020

Reconfirm instructional delivery method:
Early Childhood – Hybrid (synchronous daily time option, recorded materials, print based) Center Based Program – Face to Face, Contingency Learning Plans for remote option (recorded lessons, live meeting time options, access to printed materials) Youth Center – Face to Face MCMC – Several options - Live, synchronous or Virtual, asynchronous instruction
Reconfirm how instruction will be delivered for each grade level:
Early Childhood: Hybrid with 2 days in person, 2 days remote (on remote dates - synchronous daily time option, recorded materials, print based, weekly office hours, virtual home visits)
Center Based Program: Face to Face, Contingency Learning Plans for remote option (recorded lessons, live meeting time options, access to printed materials)
Youth Center: Face to Face
Monroe County Middle College: There are three different options for the MCMC students. Option 1 is 2-3 days face-to-face and 2-3 days of distance learning. Cohort A attended Mondays and Tuesdays face-to-face in September and are face-to-face on Mondays – Wednesdays in October. On the days they were not face-to-face, they connected to their classes every day through Zoom to receive live, synchronous instruction. Cohort B attended Wednesdays – Fridays face-to-face in September and are face-to-face on Thursdays and Fridays in October. On the days students are not face-to-face, they connect to their classes through Zoom to receive live, synchronous instruction. Option 2 is where the students are distant and are connecting to their classes every day via Zoom for live, synchronous instruction. Option 3 is where students are virtual and are receiving asynchronous instruction that they can access any time, any place, anywhere via Edgenuity. Out of the 363 students at the MCMC, 85% are face-to-face, 11% are distance, 4% are virtual.
