Activity & Coloring Book

SCHOOL BUS DANGER ZONES

Know the Danger Zones

- Every child must know the DANGER ZONES around the school bus.
- Children should never enter the DANGER ZONES unless the driver has given them permission.
- If a child can touch the bus, he or she is too close.
- If a child must cross the street, know all the rules to cross safely.
- The 5 Giant Step rule is a good measurement for children to identify the DANGER ZONES around the school bus, particularly when crossing in front of the bus.
- When near a bus, the children must have the attention of the school bus driver.
- Children should never play around or near school bus vehicles.
- When leaving the bus, children must walk directly home.

The Danger Zones

are the areas on all sides of the bus where children are in the most danger of being hit or injured. Children should stay ten feet away from the bus (or as far away as they can) and never go behind the bus. Take 5 giant steps in front of the bus before crossing, so they can be seen by the bus driver.

Ride the School Bus Safely

Getting On

- Walk with an adult to the school bus stop.
- Wait five giant steps away from the road.
- Wait until the school bus driver says it is safe to get on.

On the School Bus

- Go straight to your seat.
- Sit facing the front of the school bus.
- Do what the school bus driver tells you.

Getting Off

- Look out for cars before getting off the school bus.
- When you're off, take five giant steps from the school bus.
- Look left-right-left to make sure no cars are coming.
- Wait for the driver to signal it is safe to cross.

When crossing the street in front of the bus, walk far enough in front (10 Feet) of the bus
so that you can see the driver.

Cross immediately.

Never go back to pick up anything that you may have dropped.

Always listen to the school bus driver's words.

Waiting for the bus

When getting on the bus, stay away from the danger zone, look at the bus driver, and wait for the bus driver's signal.

Board the bus one at a time.

Remain seated until you reach your school.

Wait until the bus comes to a complete stop before entering or exiting and hold onto the handrail.
