NON-INSTRUCTIONAL EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEW PROCEDURES

PURPOSE AND COMPONENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE REVIEW

An evaluation is an important growth tool for both employees and administrators. The district has selected MASA's School Advance Non-Instructional Performance Review. The process is designed to provide specific and timely feedback on key performance indicators. The purpose of the feedback is to provide staff with recognition of their accomplishments and contributions to the organization along with a means to identify possible areas of growth that could enhance performance.

The performance review process follows these simple steps:

1. SELF ASSESSMENT: Use either Part 1 (for all non-supervisory staff) or both Parts 1 and 2 (for supervisory staff) of the performance review and feedback instrument to complete a self-assessment. Fill in the circle next to each descriptor that you believe you can demonstrate applies to you. Make some notes for yourself on how you might provide evidence or examples (if need) to support your self-assessment.
2. MEET WITH YOUR SUPERVISOR: Meet with your supervisor to discuss your self-assessment and determine what other information your supervisor needs to complete his or her assessment of your performance.
3. DISCUSSION WITH SUPERVISOR: After your supervisor completes his or her assessment of your performance, meet again and have a dialogue to work through:
 - a. Any discrepancies between your and your supervisor's assessment
 - b. Confirming and prioritizing your growth edges
 - c. Deciding which growth edges to pursue with a specific performance growth plan (3 goals).
 - d. Establishing a process and timeline for ongoing performance dialogue and feedback throughout the next performance review cycle. Note: This is important for keeping the lines of communication open and for achieving ongoing performance dialogue between staff and their supervisors.
4. CONNECT WITH SUPERVISOR DURING REVIEW CYCLE: During the performance review cycle, make sure to reconnect with your supervisor on a regular basis to share how the work on your performance growth plan is going and to dialogue about any performance concerns, need for support, or other issues that arise.
5. Prior to the next summative review at the end of the performance review cycle, update your self-assessment and performance growth plans to share with your supervisor.

COMPONENTS OF THE EVALUATION

1. Checklist on Standards for Success

- Staff and supervisors will follow the appropriate Checklist in Standards for Success. There are separate checklists for Non-Supervisors and Supervisors.
